

Talks 55 - My Experiences...

Ten years I've been going through what's known as Spiritual Awakening, 2015 I had a NDE, felt a hand on my forehead and recovered fast... But a few years later after becoming psychic back then, I started to see what seemed like a tiny TV being built in my mind early morning's.

Before that I'd seen these sparkles in my mind for 6 months in 2015 - then one day they were put so big to show me, then they'd just drift and fade - twice this happened, then I looked up online sparkles in mind's eye - Angel Sparkles, you could have knocked me down with a feather.

Some years ago in our church, a Minister gave out small diagrams to everyone - and asked that we stare at it for 15 seconds then close our eyes - some people saw Jesus as I did, and my hand glowed.

I remember a mystic saying - what I tell you is not bragging, it's saying it as it is - so we all learn that unusual spiritual things can happen... As in repeating double numbers, a message of approval or to do something.

In 2017 I started to hear this tap tap tap outside the bedroom window, every morning - about the time, twice I heard what I can only describe as a beautiful choir of angels singing early morning's; you can look this up online - it happens to some, probably through awakening.

This tap tap tap, I'd say to my wife in the morning's can you hear that tapping, nope lol just me then - after weeks of this, then checking spouting I started to research mind'body'spirit - every time I stopped researching, the tapping would start again - 6 years research I've done, and I've since been specialising in God's Mysterious Ways.

I've had a lot of nights lack of sleep over the years, when a message is trying to come in, and not listening / connecting, and tinnitus can go up temporarily, as pay attention - you do the connect in rest time, totally calm the mind and smile, spiritual clear knowing 'gut feeling' guidance.
